

Sri B. D. JATTI.—I am not going to place the statement on the table of this House. It is no question between the labourers and the Management.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—You said that the matter of bonus for 52-53 is also involved. Why was there such a long delay in deciding that matter?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—It was involved. That was left till now. Recently it has been decided. A truce agreement has been entered into for three years. All the questions have been decided.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—In answer to (c) you said that the temporary gap in production was made up in subsequent months. May I know the wonderful ways and methods that were used in just producing to make up the loss in the subsequent months?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The method of putting the supplementary is rather wonderful. But the work done is normal. They exerted more and produced more and as such there is no loss to the factory.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—May I know how this plant was able to produce more beyond its capacity?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The production does not depend only upon the capacity of the plant. It also depends upon the workers who are working for more hours. Here I will give the figures of eight months for the previous three years also:

56-57	...	73,447 lbs.
57-58	...	1,83,000 lbs.
58-59	...	1,02,052 lbs.
59-60	...	1,08,664 lbs.

There is nothing wonderful in this; it is all the work of the labourers.

Sri G. N. PUTTANNA.—When they work for more time, naturally they must be paid overtime allowance. Then where is the reason when there is no loss of revenue for the year as a result of the strike?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The labourers themselves agreed to make up the loss and they worked of their own accord; they are not going to claim anything.

Sri C. K. RAJAIAH SETTY.—What is the number of hours they were working before and the number of hours they were made to work after they promised to make up the loss? What is the extra time they were made to work?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—I have no idea about it; but they themselves worked with willingness.

* Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—The question relates to the construction of a bridge across Hagari river in the new ayacut that has been taken up. This ayacut is part of a big scheme that has been sanctioned. It is no doubt true that Government appreciates the hon'ble member's anxiety to have the bridge constructed early. Government will assure that it will give as much sympathetic consideration as possible.

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—When I say that Government will assure me sympathetic consideration, how can I say that we will take it up this year alone? We will consider it with as much sympathy as possible
